

Week 4

You First

Reference Text: Deuteronomy 6:6

Main Text: Romans 12:2

Before You Begin: How do you spend time with God?

Discussion Questions:

1. Read Deuteronomy 6:6
2. Who do you think Moses instructs the people to have the commands of God in their hearts, before he commands them to teach these commands to their children?
3. What have been your biggest struggles personally growing in your relationship with Christ?
4. Jeremy said, "You cannot lead someone where you have not been or are not going." In what ways have your personal time with God been a help or a hinderance in leading your family spiritually?
5. What obstacles have you faced in your personal time with God?
6. In what ways can this group help you in growing your faith?
7. How has guilt or shame kept you from trying new ways to grow personally?

Next Steps:

1. Establish a plan (along with accountability) for personal growth toward God. Take 1 step this week in that direction.
