

DISRUPT series

Week 2.

BIBLE TEXT: Acts 10:9-48

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1. Share a time when you experienced a disruption caused by racial tensions.
- 2. What did you learn from that experience?
- 3. How do you process your actions or the actions' of others during times of racial tension?
- 4. Jeremy said that often times we lump groups of people together and then judge them according to the worst. Do you agree?
- 5. Referencing question #4, when do you see others do this? Why do we do this?
- 6. When thinking of the "Jew vs. Gentile" issue in the New Testament, do you often think of it as being a racial issue? Why or why not?
- 7. What can this homegroup do to ease racial tensions going on around us?

NEXT STEPS

- Evaluate your own heart, not the heart of others.
- Have a conversation with someone that looks differently than you do.
- Live a life of love.

"If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres." - the apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 13.
