

DEFINING MOMENTS

THAT CHANGE EVERYTHING

Week 2.

Bible Text: Acts 4:1-20

IceBreaker: Share a time when you had to stand in front of a group of people, some friends, etc and talk about Jesus.

Discussion Questions

1. What's your favorite memory about growing up in church? For those who did not grow up in church, what's a memory you wish you had?
2. If someone ask you to define the word "gospel", how would you respond?
3. When you think about the early church, what's a characteristic trait that you feel like they had? And with that answer, do you feel like today's church has the same trait?
4. Have you ever felt like you missed a defining moment in your life? How do you process that reality?
5. How can you live your life this week as if "the message matters"?
