

Week #3 — Priscilla & Aquila.

Text: Acts 18

Icebreaker Questions:

1. What's the craziest story you heard in the news this past week?
2. As we look toward the summer months, what are you looking forward to the most?

Discussion Questions:

3. What is the most rewarding aspect of serving others?
4. For those married couples who serve together, what is the most fun and most difficult part of serving together at Crosswind Church, out in the community, etc?
5. As a married couple that serves together, who stands out? And who stands out as a person in the fine print who serves and is unmarried?
6. What's the most difficult aspect of serving/trying to serve others? The Church? Out in the community?
7. How can we as a homegroup begin to take next steps to change this dilemma?

Next Steps // Prayer Requests

1. Encourage one another (married or unmarried) to look for places and ways to serve Crosswind Church, the community and others this week.

The church is not built upon the gifts & talents of a few, but on the sacrifices of many.
