

Week 2 — Family

Icebreakers:

- If your family could choose to be like any other family (local, famous, TV, etc.), which family would you choose to be like and why?

Discussion Questions:

1. Describe what it was like growing up in your childhood home.
2. Is your current family home/dynamic different than perhaps you expected it to be? Explain.
3. Jeremy stated, "Who you are as an individual is highly based upon who's in your family." What characteristics, beliefs, values, habits, etc. do you have that has come directly from others in your immediate family?
4. Paul gives specific instructions to Christian households in Colossians 3:18-21. Discuss the following by explaining the challenges and joys in each.
 - Wives submit.
 - Husbands love.
 - Children obey.
 - Parents encourage.

Next Steps:

- Consider the following questions this upcoming week:
 - Do I set up anyone up for failure in my family?
 - As a parent/guardian, am I inconsistent with rules & punishment?
 - Am I quick to apologize?
- If you're married, consider signing up for the Marriage Course on the Crosswind Church app.
