DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What has been your favorite story, parable, verse(s) out of the gospel of John?
2. Would you prefer to hear, read or watch a story from a first-person perspective?
3. Why does an eye-witness account of an experience matter more to those hearing it?
4. Considering the previous answers, does it change your perspective about the gospel of John? John was an actual person and disciple of Jesus in the first century.
5. Jeremy said that Peter lived a life of boldness and bone-headedness. That one moment he's walking on water and next Jesus is rebuking him. Can you relate to this in your own faith journey?
6. One of the questions we asked at the beginning of this series was, "What is one part of your life in which you wish to be better by summer's end?" You might not remember your answer (or perhaps even the question), but think about it and share what God has done for you, through you and/or in you this summer?
