

PART 4: NOBODY'S THAT FOOLISH!

ICEBREAKERS

- What's the dumbest thing you did this past week?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Thinking back to that last week thing, was there warning signs? Were emotions running all over the place? Wise advice ignored? Could it have been avoided?
2. In hindsight, what's the best piece of advice that you needed, but weren't given?
3. When it comes to sexual conduct, why does our culture glorify doing what is right in our own eyes? And what's the likely cost of that kind of view?
4. Read Judges 16:4-21. How unbelievable is it to you that Samson makes the same mistake over and over until it finally catches up with him? Do you see this pattern in the lives of others around you?
5. What's one step you need to take to surrender your sexual conduct, relationships, finances, foolish ways, etc. to a God who wants to deliver you always?

NEXT STEPS & PRAYER REQUESTS

- Consider the area of life where you are being tempted to compromise. Ask yourself: is this the wise thing to do? Or is it foolish?
