

PART 5: EXTRAORDINARY

ICEBREAKERS

- What do you want loved ones & others to say about you at your funeral?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Who is the first person or family that comes to mind who lives an extraordinary life?
What stands out about their lives that seems extraordinary?
2. Why do many people around us believe they have to accept living an ordinary life?
3. Jeremy taught, “You cannot living in rebellion and then blame God for when disaster strikes.” Do you agree or disagree with this statement? And why?
4. Can anybody relate recently to Gideon’s feelings of helplessness & hopelessness?
5. What would your life look like if you were convinced God was with you and for you?

NEXT STEPS & PRAYER REQUESTS

- This week consider the following question: What would an extraordinary person do?
And fill in the blank a more specific role. (ex: spouse, parent, friend, employee, etc.)
- Commit to memory the words of Paul in Romans 8:31-32:
“...If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all — how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?”
