

Christmas:

IT'S ALL GOOD

ICEBREAKERS:

- What rule at your house is an actual rule but not always enforced? Why are we so terrible at keeping our own rules?
- What gifts do you prefer to receive: gifts you need or gifts you simply just want?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. Which would you rather receive first: good news or bad news? Explain yourself.
2. Jeremy said, "It's not okay news that saves but the good news!" Do you feel like the gospel of Jesus Christ is still good news? If so, how would you respond to that question if asked at work, at school or with a friend?
3. Does anything about Jesus' life, ministry and teaching strike you as less than good news? If so, what? And why?
4. In what ways has the church as a whole made the good news not so good?
5. In what ways have Christians you know made the good news not so good?
6. In what ways have you made the good news not so good? And how can you change?

NEXT STEPS

- Let's reclaim the Gospel as actual good news of great joy for all people in every aspect of our lives.
- Invite a friend or two to experience this good news with you on a Sunday morning or to this homegroup.
