

Christmas:

IT'S ALL GOOD

ICEBREAKERS:

- With 1 being worst person you know and 10 being the best person you know, where would you rank yourself on that scale from 1 – 10?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. What is one of the worst things you ever did as a child? And did someone teach you that thing or did you come up with the idea all by yourself?
2. Growing up when you heard the term “sin”, what came to mind? Is your mindset toward sin today the same as when you were younger or has it evolved over time?
3. Read about Simon Peter’s first encounter with Jesus in Luke 5:1–11.
  - What do not understand about this story?
  - What part of this encounter fascinates you?
  - How would’ve you reacted if you were Peter that day?
4. When was the first time it dawned upon you that you needed a Savior?
5. Are you currently dealing with a mistake, a recurring problem or simply put, a sin, that you haven’t yet confessed? Confess today. Pray. Encourage one another. Hold each other accountable.

NEXT STEPS

- Stop living as if you are a mistake and start living as a sinner who has been set free.
- Let’s reclaim the Gospel as actual good news of great joy for all people in every aspect of our lives. Invite a friend or two to experience this good news with you on a Sunday morning or to this homegroup.
