SOAKING IN THE BEAUTY OF GOD

PSALM 51

UP FOR DISCUSSION:

1. Would you prefer to shoot fireworks all night long or shoot fireworks the 4th of every month in a year?
2. Growing up, did you cry often? As an adult, do you cry often?
3. Take a few minutes and read Psalm 51. Knowing David writes this after his affair with Bathsheba and the murder of her husband, what part of this psalm jumps out to you?
4. In Psalm 51:12, David prays, "Restore to me the joy of your salvation..." Share with the group your story of salvation. Does it bring you joy now like it did then?
5. How often do you criticize yourself? Do you feel like Jesus would be as tough on you as you are yourself?
6. Chase taught that this psalm reminds us, "God wants our brokenness not our sacrifices." In your own words & thoughts, what does that mean to you? How does this truth change your perspective about yourself as you head into a new month?
