

PART 6 - THE EVIDENCE OF AN INVITATION

ICEBREAKER

- Tell of a time when you absolutely demanded proof of something before believing.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. According to Paul in 1 Corinthians 15:5-8, how many people saw the resurrected Jesus? And shouldn't that be plenty to prove his resurrection?
2. Why do you think Paul emphasizes eye witness testimony?
3. Why do you think people still tend to struggle with Jesus' resurrection today? And what can you do to assist with their potential belief?
4. In John 20, we see that Jesus offers a peaceful greeting not a holy rebuke when he shows himself to his followers. How does this insight change your perspective of Jesus?
5. Do you consider yourself a person who doubts?
6. What evidence for the life, death and resurrection of Jesus do you find most compelling?
7. How has this "Investigating Jesus" series charged or challenged your faith in Jesus of Nazareth?

NEXT STEPS
