

PART 1 — BORDERS, BARRIERS & BOUNDARIES

ICEBREAKER

- What's your favorite thing and worst thing about the summer months ending?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In John 4, a Samaritan woman encounters a Jewish man. They are different in a lot of ways. Who in your day-to-day life is different from yourself?
2. Where in your life — work, parenting, marriage, friendships, etc — do you tend to lean toward correction instead of kindness? What would it look like to reverse that order this upcoming week?
3. Why do you think Jesus doesn't stop the conversation after He reveals the Samaritan woman's past?
4. Garrett encouraged us to not limit our worship to a location. Is there a place where you feel like you cannot worship? What would it take to believe that God is present there too?
5. If Jesus isn't scared of our sins nor mad at our mistakes, how does that make you feel as your move forward in both your faith and future?

NEXT STEPS

- Try kindness before correction.
- Worship God outside of Crosswind Church.
- Remember Jesus isn't scared of your sins and He's not mad at your mistakes.
