

REAL-LATIONSHIPS — PART 3: WHOLLY ON YOUR OWN

ICEBREAKER

- What's one thing — big or small — that you're thankful to have in your life right now that you didn't plan on having or ask for?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In 1 Corinthians 7:25-38, the apostle Paul addresses singleness within the church. Why do you think he is careful to showcase it as neither a command to obey nor a sin to avoid?
2. When you were single, did you view that season as a gift or as wasted time?
3. Our culture can treat singleness like a JV team vs marriage like the varsity team. How does Paul teach against that mindset?
4. If both being single & being married are gifts, then how we change the way we talk about relationships with each other, especially with single friends & relatives?
5. What do you perceive to be the pros/cons of being single as a Christian and the pros/cons of being married as a Christian?

NEXT STEPS

- If being single is a gift, then find joy in the gift.
